

Elizabeth Mae Larvie - known as Liz by her many friends and relatives - was born on August 23, 1962 in Kadoka, SD to Grace Quiver and Burton 'Boots' Larvie. Liz went home to the happy hunting grounds of our ancestors on August 8, 2018. She was 55 years young on this earth.

Liz attended elementary and high school at Crazy Horse School (Tasunke Witko Owayawa) in Wanblee, SD in her early years. She survived the turbulent 70's with a happy go lucky disposition and continued her education at Oglala Lakota College on the Pine Ridge and at Sinte Gleska University on the Rosebud Reservation.

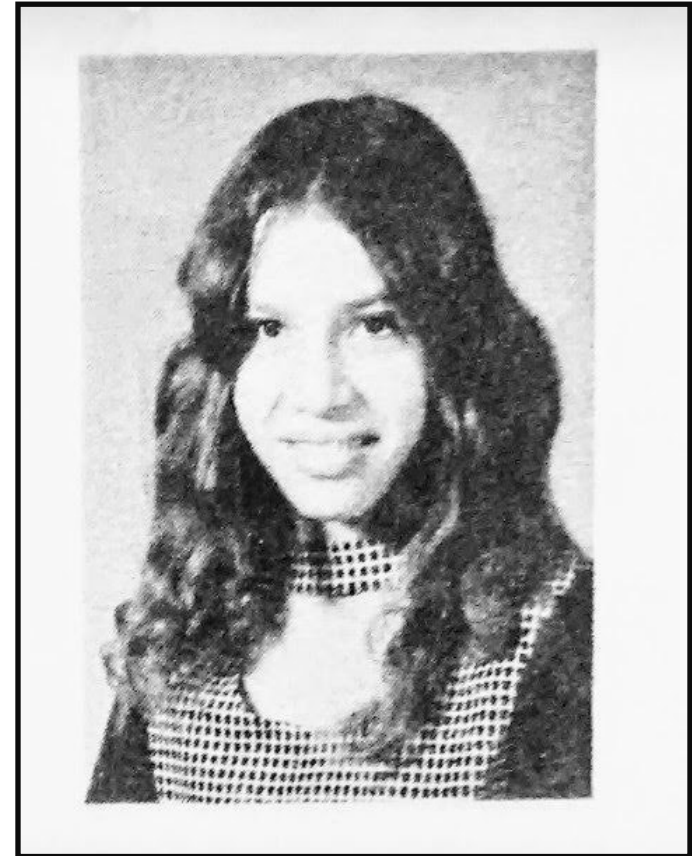

When Liz was not attending school, she was working in various industries. She always thought of her children and relatives well being. She was a very pleasant human being whom her many friends and relatives gravitated to like a magnet. Her sense of humor and humanity shined brightly to help us see the paths we were on. She was one of a kind, unique. A protector of her people.

Elizabeth Mae Larvie has left behind four wonderful children, daughter Merriah Escamilla and sons: Austin Larvie, Chiloe Bailey and Rodney Larvie, Jr.; grandchildren: Lyndon, Black & Maxine Larvie, Cheyann Bailey & Chloe Spirit Track and Simone, Isaiah, Diamond & Edward Larvie; and numerous nephews, nieces, cousins, aunts and uncles.

Liz is also survived by her father Burton Larvie; auntie Elsie Huber; sisters: Geraldine Larvie-Yellow Cloud & Bethene Larvie; and brother Michael Larvie.

Liz joins her mother Grace Quiver, brother Ronald Larvie and sister Marilyn Larvie in the spirit world.

Liz, You have shared your life with us all on your journey. Now it's time for us to continue ours. We love you and will miss you very much. MITAKUE OYASIN

Elizabeth Mae Larvie

Safely Home

I am home in Heaven, dear ones:
Oh, so happy and so bright
There is perfect joy and beauty
In this Everlasting Light.
All the pain and grief is over,
Every restless tossing passed;
I am now at peace forever,
Safely Home in Heaven at last.
There is work still waiting for you.
So you must not idly stand;
Do it now, while life remaineth ~
You shall rest in Jesus' land.
When that work is all completed,
He will gently call you Home;
Oh, the rapture of that meeting,
Oh, the joy to see you come!
