In Celebration Of The Life Of

Karen Hope McCloskey

I have walked in the path of my Ancestors for as long as I could remember. I have faltered and made mistakes but I have gained my footing and remembered who I am and where I came from. Do not cry for me, I am free of so much pain. I am able to gather wild timpila's, choke-cherries; wild plums and Sage as I did in my younger years. Do not cry for me for I will always be with you and you with me. Cherish every moment you have with your loved ones here on this Earth for one day you to will cross the Milky Way. Always remember to say I love you. Always remember to be kind show compassion, humility, generosity and wisdom I am proud to have shared this life with all who I've met I pray you remember all the good times we shared and never have regrets. I know that one day I will see you again. I love all of you so be strong and help one another.
