The Clock of Life

The clock of life is wound but once
And no one has the power
To tell just where the hands will stop
At late, or early hour.
To lose one's wealth is sad indeed
To lose one's health is more
To lose one's soul is such a loss
As no one can restore.
The present only is our own
To seek to do God's will Tomorrow holds no promise, for
The clock may then be still.
