Forget Me Not

Forget me not thru the good and the bad,
Remember all the crazy times we had,
Even if it was bad I was happy to hear you laugh,
But I sat with you when you were sad,
I lived to see you smile don't forget that,
You know why? Because I'm YOUR DAD...
Don't you fret, my last encounters
With every single one of you I will not forget.
My absence now is just a minor storm,
I'll be with you again so don't cry anymore,
My presence was long but I'll keep my words short,
Just know what I lived life for.
I know right now for you things are cloudy,
I loved having everyone of you around me,
But time has finally found me...
Kids, I tried the longest to hold on,
But I raised you all to stay together & STAY STRONG,
Don't cry because I'm going home...
