

Family of Barron Black Elk

Barron was born to late Mary Black Elk/Whiteman and adopted and raised by Carolyn Black Elk.

His siblings are Nicholas Moran, Marisa Moran, Anjulisiri Moran and the late David Moran.

Other siblings include Melania Black Elk, Clayton Whitman, the late Stacy Black Elk, and the late Angel Whitman.

Also surviving are his uncles Nicholas Pat Black Elk and Gerald Black Elk and his aunt Virginia Iyotte.

Barron adored his late brother David's children: Xaviar, C'airra, Cicely, David, and Mason Moran.

Some of his nicknames were "Ninja Barron", "Morpheus" and "Matrix." He spent a lot time at his aunt Virginia Iyotte's house in Rapid City. Barron was married to Karen and they traveled all over, including France and Egypt. Growing up he was attached to his baby sister Siri; he called her his baby egg even as an adult. Barron was loved, a very helpful spirit, he enjoyed making people laugh, and had a smile that will be missed.

Barron Black Elk

“The first peace, which is the most important, is that which comes from within the souls of people when they realize their relationship, their oneness with the universe and all its powers, and when they realize that at the center of the universe dwells the great spirit, and that this center is really everywhere, it is with in each of us.”

Servant of God Nicholas Black Elk 1866-1950

Let Me Go

When I come to the end of the road
And the sun has set for me
I want no rites in a gloom filled room
Why cry for a soul set free?

Miss me a little, but not for long
And not with your head bowed low
Remember the love that once we shared
Miss me, but let me go.

For this is a journey we all must take
And each must go alone.
It's all part of the master plan
A step on the road to home.

When you are lonely and sick at heart
Go to the friends we know.
Laugh at all the things we used to do
Miss me, but let me go.
