In Loving Memory Of

Jason "Jay"

1972 ~ 2020

And my heart is sinking like
the setting sun,
Setting on the things
I wish I'd done.
It's time to say goodbye to yesterday. This is where the cowboy rides away.

In memory of Jason Good Shield, Sr.

AKA Kayo (Cowboy).

His father-in-law Lonnie Two Eagle, Sr. gave him this name

Jay was a great person with a awesome personality. He always had a friendly smile and welcoming hand shake for everyone. He was a caring, thoughtful, respectful and loving person. He loved all his children, grandchildren, family and friends. He made a big impact in everyone's life that he came across. We are going to miss you Jay. You were a Good Father, Brother, Son-in-law, Uncle, Cousin and Grandpa. Jay grew up from the country and loved the country life. He loved horses and had a passion for raising & breaking horses. He was a bareback rider and wild horse racer back in his earlier days of being on the rodeo trail. Heaven gained a wonderful cowboy. He left too soon, but he is in a good place, pain free. I'm sure Jay will be reunited with some of his cowboy friends who passed on before him giving heaven the best rodeos up there. Jay will be happy to be reunited with his horses Buster & Ponch. Buster was his first horse he learned and trained. Ponch was also one of his horses he raised, broke and trained. Jay will continue team roping together with his horses making more memories in rodeo heaven. He is gone but will never be forgotten. #RIPJayGood
