In Loving Memory of

Rob

March 20, 1984 ~ July 19, 2021

In Celebration of the Life of Robert James Waln

I come to you hungry and tired,
You give me food and let me sleep
I come to you weak,
You give me strength and that's deep You call me a sheep and lead me to green pastures Only asking that I keep the focus between the chapters.
You give me the word and only ask that I interpret And give me the eyes that I may recognize the serpent You know I ain't perfect, but you'd like me to try Unlike the devil who just wants me to lie, 'til I die.
Lord, why is it that I go through so much pain?
All I saw was black,
all I felt was rain
I come to you because it's you who knows You showed me that everything was black Because my eyes were closed.
