In Celebration Of The Life Of Steven William Emery

"Man in The Mirror"

When you get all you want and you struggle for self, and the world makes you king for a day, then go in the mirror and look at yourself and see what that man has to say.
For it isn't your mother, your father or wife whose judgement upon you must pass, but the man whose verdict counts most in your life is the one staring back from the glass.
He's the fellow to please, never mind all the rest, for he's with you right to the end, and you've passed your most difficult test if the man in the glass is your friend.
You can fool the whole world, down the highway of years, and take pats on the back as you pass.
But your final reward will be heartache and tears if you've cheated the man in the glass.
