Take my children by the hand,
And tell them I have tried.
Ask them not to weep for me—
When I cross the great divide.

All the love that my heart can hold—
I have willed to each and all....
Though my tongue will be mute—
I will hear them when they call.

Let them know my love was great
And the words I longed to speak
Hung like dust upon my lips....
And spilled dry tears down my cheek.

Tell them I shall be near by
If sorrow ever pays a call;
To lead them gently on their way
Where peace, joy and solace fall.

And though they cannot hear me,
For each, I will say a prayer.
Tell them to remember, please
I leave them all, in God's care.
